

PEKKA MAIJALA

Short CV

With a research background on biological processes of biomass degradation, PM has strong expertise on biotech in biorefineries and environmental biotech. Later he has expanded his interests towards food technology, biomaterials, sustainable and innovative food ecosystems and circular economy. As a specialist at Pyhäjärvi Institute, PM acts as a link for bringing the developmental needs of food industries to the preparation of more sustainable policies.